To Parties Whom It May Concern:

Strathmore Hall Foundation Inc. was pleased to host Hoday and the Mastan Group on Sunday, July 20, 2008 and Friday, September 25, 2009 in the 1,976 seat Concert Hall at The Music Center at Strathmore. Only the highest recommendations can be made in reference to their performance ability, professionalism, and quality of all aspects of event production.

As a non-profit organization Strathmore's mission is to serve our community by creating an avenue for individuals to experience diverse programming through self-presentations as well as rental events. Hoday and the Mastan group provided quality traditional Middle Eastern programming that appealed to the large Persian community in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area. The reviews received from the audience members were all positive and supportive of the act, its performers, and expressed interest in seeing them again.

The group consisted of Parvaz Hoday (Saeid Jafarzadehahmadsargoorabi) Azad Mirzapour, Mahmood Nozarghaziyani, Alireza Mehdizadeh Ghooheh, Sina Jahanabadi, Seyed Mohammad Hanjani, Arjang Faramarzi, Ali Pajooheshgar, and Mehrdad Arabifard. All members showcased equally exquisite artistic skill and vision.

In the two performances, the group grossed over $140,000.00 USD in ticket office revenue and performed in front of over 2,300 patrons.

Our experience with the local promoter, Farid Bozorgmehr, of CSI Arts Inc. as well as the artists and their management has been exemplary. We sincerely hope that The Music Center at Strathmore will be considered their home whenever they visit D.C. in the future.
